READ and COLOUR

Blends

Introduction

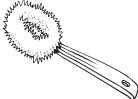

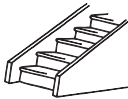

'Read and Colour ~ Blends' will reinforce the recognition of initial and final consonant blends.

The activities involve writing and recognising blends at the beginning and ends of words.

The students look at pictures and write the missing blend or complete a word in a sentence with a blend. This blend is matched to a colour and then this colour is used on the large picture.

The pictures below are examples of the blends treated in this book.

‘Read and Colour ~ Blends’ will reinforce the recognition of initial and final consonant blends.

- * Students look at pictures and are asked to write the missing blend or have to complete a word in a sentence.
- * They then identify the sounds in a large picture and colour it according to the displayed colour code.
- * The blends treated in this book are:
